

BARBECUE: THE BACKYARD

2015 Sauces of Honor National Champions

The National Barbecue News is proud to announce the winners of the 2015 Sauces of Honor contest. This is a national barbecue sauce contest that had 165 total entries this year. Our goal for this contest each year is very simple: find the best sauce that accompanies smoked pork, chicken, or beef. All entries were judged in rounds and on a comparative basis. Thanks again for all who sent us your entries. We look forward to doing it all again next year as well!
